FUTURE JUSTICE PRIZE

Ms Nyadol Nyuon

Nyadol Nyuon is a lawyer with Arnold Bloch Leibler in Melbourne. She fled the war in South Sudan with her large family when she was five. Nyadol started her studies in the Kakuma refugee camp in far north-west Kenya, one of four girls in a class of 80 students. She arrived in Australia in 2005, then finished her secondary education and completed a bachelor of arts at Victoria University before studying law at Melbourne University. Previously Nyadol worked as a research assistant with the Victorian Equal Opportunity and Human Rights Commission, a project officer helping refugees settle, a youth worker in a leadership program for refugee women and a basketball coach.
